Mrs. Ralph Gring

33rd DISTRICT

Mrs. L. K. Bright, announced that the Thirty-Third District is making final plans for participation in the 7th Annual Career Guidance Center to be held on April 17-25 at the Great Western Exhibit Center.

Education displays are being brought together under one roof much like a "Supermarket" of jobs and careers. More than 75 occupational areas of new careers will be presented along with their special requirements, plus the opportunity to talk with a representative of that particular occupation.

Nationally recognized as an effective means of helping young people to prepare for their future, the PTA believes that this service to youth should have the support of parents and the community.

The 7th Annual Career Guidance Center will be held at the Great Western Exhibit Center, 2120 South Eastern Ave., City of Commerce (Los Angeles 90022), and can quickly and easily be reached via the Santa Ana Freeway at Atlantic Boulevard. It will be open April 17 to 25 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday and Sunday from 1 to 4 p.m., and on Thursday, April 18, and Wednesday, April 24, from 7 to 10 p.m.

CALLE MAYOR

Fathers and sons will be special guests of Calle Mayor PTA Tuesday, April 16, and will hear and see demonstrations of the athletic program offered at South High School.

Mr. Steve Dodson, gymnastics coach, will outline the full athletic program, and introduce six students who will perform some of the gymnastic activities for various classes and ages.

The meeting will begin at 7:30 and husbands of PTA officers will conduct the business meeting. Home-made pie will be served.

MADISON

A unique and interesting daytime association meeting is planned by the Madison PTA for Thursday, April 18. A field trip to Columbia School will follow the business meeting at 9 a.m. in the Madison cafeteria. Car pool transportation will be provided and child care will be available.

Officers of the Madison PTA for 1968-69 were elected as follows: Mmes. Charles Mathews, president; James Roberson, William Mowery, James Reynolds, vice presidents; Edward Kessler, corresponding secretary; Lloyd Kessek, recording secretary; Harold Sedoris, treasurer; Verle Bahde, auditor; Roger Kunz, historian; Fred Yarbrough, parliamentarian; Geneva Shelton, faculty advisor.

PHILIP MAGRUDER

A Civil Defense presentation will highlight the April 18 PTA meeting at Philip Magruder School, 7:30 p.m. in the cafeteria. Mrs. Melva Larson will give the inspirational and C. R. Wallner will lead the pledge of allegiance.

Starting April 19, the Magruder PTA will sponsor a five-week First Aid Course under the direction of the American Red Cross. Classes will be on Fridays from 9:30 to 12 noon at El Nido Park. A baby sitter will be available for a small fee per child.

An ice cream social will be held in conjunction with Open House, April 25 and a Paper and Rag Drive will be held May 3.

NEWTON

In conjunction with the Children's Science Fair, Dr. Kenneth Morris, professor of zoology at UCLA, will speak on the Marine Life in this area. Newton PTA will meet April 18 at 7:30 p.m. in the cafeteria.

Awards will be presented to the pupils entering the Science Fair at this meeting.

ANZA
